LICENSING AND SUPERVISION OF INSURANCE BUSINESS

INSURANCE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE DIRECTIVE NO. SIB/ /2025

Whereas, prudent and effective corporate governance practices by insurance companies are critical to the proper functioning of the insurance sector and the economy as a whole;

Whereas, good corporate governance plays a vital role in maintaining the safety and soundness of the financial system while also developing accountability regime that allocates the powers and responsibilities of an insurance company among the board and senior management;

Whereas, good corporate governance should lead to balanced risk-taking practices that take into account the interests of key stakeholders;

Whereas, the National Bank of Ethiopia aims to ensure that insurers are soundly and prudently managed and directed;

Now, therefore, in accordance with Article 14(1), Article 15(4/b-d & f/) and Article 64(2) of the Insurance Business Proclamation No. 746/2012 (as Amended by Proclamation No. 1163/2019), the National Bank of Ethiopia has issued this Directive.

1. Short Title

This Directive may be cited as “Insurance Corporate Governance Directive No. SIB// 2025”.

2. Definitions

For the purpose of this Directive, unless the context provides otherwise:

2.1. “board” means the board of directors that is the governing body of an insurance company appointed by shareholders or other authorized body that

NATIONAL BANK OF ETHIOPIA

3.1 This Directive shall be applicable on all insurance companies operating in Ethiopia and on an Ethiopian reinsurer.

3.2 In exceptional cases and with valid justification acceptable to the National Bank, insurance companies may apply to the National Bank to defer the application of certain provisions of this Directive-

3.1 Notwithstanding the provision of sub-article 3.1 of this Article, an insurance company owned by the Government may apply Articles 7 and 9 in due consideration of relevant laws.

4 General Principles

4.1 Effective corporate governance of an insurance company and the way they conduct their business is critical to the proper functioning of the insurance sector and the economy as a whole.

4.2 The primary objective of corporate governance is to develop an accountability framework that allocates the powers and responsibilities by which the business and affairs of an insurance company are carried out by its board and senior management.

4.3 A secondary objective is also to safeguard stakeholders' interest in conformity with public interest on a sustainable basis.

4.4 Among stakeholders of an insurance company, policyholder's interest takes precedence over the interest of shareholders.

5 Corporate Culture and Values

5.1 An insurance company's corporate governance framework shall institute a corporate culture and a set of values around responsible and ethical behavior, including risk culture, and legal and ethical conduct throughout the insurance company.

- 5.2 Corporate culture and value shall be set by the board and senior management and communicated to the rest of the organization, through a code of conduct and code of ethics that clearly define acceptable behavior.
- 5.3 Senior management shall institute a whistleblower policy and process overseen by the board that allow employees to report unethical and illegal issues confidentially without fear of reprisal and ensures that material concerns are thoroughly addressed.
- 5.4 An insurance company shall commit at the highest level of the organization to integrate sustainability factors in their risk management processes and oversight, focusing both on financing activities and operations.
- 5.5 An insurance company shall commit to long-term economic development and the sustainability of its investment and operating activities, in line with National Sustainable Development Goals.

6 Duties of Directors

Directors have a duty to:

- 6.1 act in good faith and with utmost commitment to promote the success of the insurance company. In this regard, directors shall give due regard to the long-term interests of the insurance company, the interests of the insurance company's employees, policyholders and creditors, and the impact of the insurance company's operations on the community and the environment;

የኢትዮጵያ ብሔራዊ ባንክ
NATIONAL BANK OF ETHIOPIA

- 6.2 exercise independent judgment in the exercise of their responsibilities, as defined in the relevant law;
- 6.3 discharge their responsibility with care, skill and diligence, as defined in the relevant law. Directors shall be liable for damages caused to an insurance company and to its shareholders due to lack of care or diligence on their part. Directors shall avoid the approval of any transaction that is contrary to the insurance company's own policies, the regulatory requirements of the National Bank and other applicable laws;
- 6.4 comply with relevant laws and regulations, National Bank Directives, and corporate values and policies of the insurance company;
- 6.5 address all issues and problems on a timely basis, and prevent illegal or unethical actions such as bribery and corruption inside and outside the insurance company;
- 6.6 disallow behaviors that could result in any improper or illegal activities in the insurance company, such as money laundering, fraud, bribery or corruption. The board shall also discourage excessive risk-taking activities and self-dealing and acceptance of gifts or favors;
- 6.7 use their position, insurance company information and assets properly. Directors shall not use their position, information acquired by virtue of the position they hold, to obtain an advantage for themselves or someone else. Directors shall not misuse the insurance company's assets except in accordance with the terms on which they are provided;
- 6.8 maintain the confidentiality of the insurance company's and third party's information; confidential information received by a director in the course of the exercise of their duties remains the property of the insurance company and it is improper to disclose it, or allow it to be disclosed, unless that disclosure is authorized by responsible organ of the insurance company or permitted by other relevant laws. Directors shall maintain appropriate level of confidentiality at all times with respect to information or data pertaining to the insurance company's customers, suppliers and employees;

- 6.9 act fairly and impartially. Directors shall avoid bias, discrimination, caprice or self-interest and shall demonstrate respect for others by acting in a professional and courteous manner; and
- 6.10 act with honesty and integrity. Directors shall be truthful and transparent in their dealings; use their power responsibly.

7 Board Size and Composition

- 7.1 Without prejudice to the provisions of the Commercial Code on the minimum number of directors, due to the special nature of the insurance companies , which gives them an added responsibility of safeguarding the interests of policyholders, the National Bank requires an insurance company, to have at least nine directors.
- 7.2 A board shall include directors who as a group provide a balance of skill, diversity and expertise, which collectively possesses the necessary qualification commensurate with the size, complexity and risk profile of the insurance company. The mixtures of core competencies include insurance, finance, accounting, management, economics, legal, business administration, auditing, information technology, investment management and sustainability. The qualifications and experience of all board members shall at a minimum meet the requirements set by the National Bank.
- 7.3 The board of an insurance company shall be composed as follows:

15 Risk Management and Compliance

15.1 Governance of risk management

15.1.1 An insurance company shall follow the three lines of defense model and assign responsibilities for risk management at key levels of the organization, including in the business units, as part of a dedicated risk management function and an independent internal audit function.

15.1.2 An insurance company shall have a dedicated risk management unit overseen by a chief risk officer. The chief risk officer shall be independent from the individual business lines and have direct and unimpeded access to the insurance company's board and in particular to the Risk Management and Compliance Committee.

15.1.2.1 The chief risk officer is responsible for supporting the committee (and the full board) in its engagement with and oversight of the development of the insurance company's risk appetite and risk appetite statement (RAS) and for translating the risk appetite into a risk limits structure.

15.1.2.2 The chief risk officer shall report and have direct access to the board or Risk Management and Compliance Committee without impediment. The chief risk officer shall have the ability to meet with the board or Risk Management and Compliance Committee in the absence of other executive directors and senior management members.

15.1.2.3 The appointment, dismissal, and other changes to the chief risk officer or its equivalent position shall be approved by the board.. The insurance company shall discuss the reasons for such removal with the National Bank.

15.1.2.4 The chief risk officer’s performance, compensation and budget shall be reviewed and approved by the Risk Management and Compliance Committee. The compensation shall be determined independently of any business line overseen, and performance measures shall be based principally on the achievement of its own objectives so as not to compromise the independence.

15.1.2.5 Appointment of chief risk officer is subject to the prior approval of the National Bank.

15.1.3 An insurance company shall integrate sustainability in the overall risk management and control framework, including risk appetite and tolerance, and the three-line-of-defense model, and evaluate the impact of sustainability on their risk profile and capital adequacy, solvency and liquidity positions. This includes assessing the impact of sustainability on inherent risks, including credit, liquidity, market, and operational risks.

15.1.4 An insurance company shall analyze the risk to its ~~loan~~ portfolio presented by climate change, natural resource constraints, human

20 Supervision

20.1 The National Bank shall supervise corporate governance of insurance companies, including through comprehensive evaluations and regular interaction with board and senior management, and will suggest remedial action as necessary.

20.2 The National Bank shall assess each insurance company's corporate governance performance, especially with respect to the risk culture of the insurance company. This includes a consideration of the behavioral dynamic of the board and senior management, including the "tone at the top" and the cultural values of the insurance company are communicated and put into practice, how information flows to and from the board and senior management, and how potential serious problems are identified and addressed throughout the company.

20.3 The National Bank will interact regularly with the board, individual board members, senior managers and those responsible for the risk management, compliance, and internal audit functions. The purpose of the interactions is to support timely and open dialogue between the insurance company and supervisors.

20.4 The board is responsible for:

20.4.1 ensuring National Bank's examination report is considered as confidential by the directors and/or employees of the insurance company;
